

SLIS Course Objectives and Assessments/SLOs in Relation to AASL Standards

This table illustrates the relationship of selected specific course objectives and assessments to AASL Standards. The relationships listed here are intended to be representative, not exhaustive.

AASL Standards	Course objective(s)	Assessments/SLOs
I. Teaching for Learning Candidates are effective teachers who demonstrate knowledge of learners and learning and who model and promote collaborative planning, instruction in multiple literacies, and inquiry-based learning, enabling members of the		: Evaluation of Online Tutorials; Creation of Online Pathfinder; Reference Interview Role-Playing; Bibliographic Instruction Podcast LIS 516: Webquest, field experience journal and report, e-Portfolio

518. Young Adult Literature and Related Media.

Students will demonstrate a basic knowledge of: 1) the wide array of literature available for young adults; 2) critical evaluation of books young adults read.

LIS 518: Teen Life journal, class discussion, final exam, discussion boards

3.4 Research and Knowledge Creation

Candidates use evidence-based, action research to collect data.

Candidates interpret and use data to create and share new

	605. Library Management. Demonstrate an understanding of issues of personnel management including staffing processes, membership in professional organizations, continuing education and professional development.	LIS 605: Position Description, Resume Assignment, Participation in Chats and Discussion Board
--	--	---

4.3 Leadership
Candidates are able to articulate the role and relationship of the school library program's impact on student academic

school library collections according to current library cataloging and classification principles and standards.	511. Collection Development and Management. 1. Gather and analyze data relating to the information needs of a service community; 2. Identify and evaluate the various literature reviewing sources; 3. Identify and apply criteria appropriate for evaluating and selecting resources in all formats and for a variety of patrons' informational needs.	LIS 511: Community Analysis paper; Reviewing sources paper; Collection Development Policy; Weeding assignment
5.2 Professional Ethics Candidates practice the ethical principles of their profession, advocate for intellectual freedom and privacy, and promote and model digital citizenship and responsibility. Candidates educate the school community on the ethical use of information and ideas	518. Young Adult Literature and Related Media. Students will demonstrate a basic understanding of issues involved in censorship of materials for young adults 508. School Libraries. Describe legal requirements (such as copyright) and professional standards (such as access to information) that affect administration of the library.	LIS 518: Class discussion, Articles on issues paper, Discussion board LIS 508: Policy manual; discussion board
5.3 Personnel, Funding, and Facilities Candidates apply best practices related to planning, budgeting, and evaluating human, information, and physical resources. Candidates organize library facilities to enhance the use of information resources and services and to ensure equitable access to all resources for all users. Candidates develop, implement, and evaluate policies and procedures that support teaching and learning in school libraries.	508. School Libraries. 1. Develop administrative policies, procedures, short and long-range plans, including budget and technology plans, for school library operation and evaluation; 2. Design library facilities that will create an environment in which a school library	